

Research Projects

Halachic Research

- I. Solidarity Between All Jews as Halachic Precept
- II. Organ Transplants and Life-Prolonging Procedures – Fundamental Principles vis-à-vis Contemporary Dilemmas
- III. Conversion Policy in Present Circumstances
- IV. The Status of International Law in Halacha

Public-Policy Research

- V. A Comprehensive Reassessment of the Torah Community's Policies towards Israel and the Wider Jewish World
- VI. The Formulation of an Israeli Constitution – How to Achieve a Consensus
- VII. Torah-True Responses to the Worldwide Assimilation Crisis
- VIII. Principles and Strategies for the Economic Rehabilitation of the Torah Community in Israel
- IX. A Torah Perspective on State Welfare in Israel
- X. Torah Education in Present Circumstances: What Needs to be Improved?
- XI. The Torah Position Regarding a "Compulsory Core Curriculum" in Israel's Schools
- XII. Possible Benefits of a Radical Decentralization of the Israeli Educational System
- XIII. Fundamental Solutions to the Dangers of the Internet
- XIV. The Feasibility of Partial Judicial and Legislative Autonomy for Each of the Two Jewish Communities in Israel: The Torah Community and the Pluralistic Community
- XV. Torah Guidelines for Dialogue Between Religious and Nonreligious Jews in Israel and the Jewish World
- XVI. Principles and Strategies for Religious Peacemaking in the Middle East